

SPY

RACHEL GLUCINA

The flesh and bones John Key meets his toast bread likeness - 4204 pieces of toast, to be exact.

Long Gallery opening, Wellington

The Long Gallery was launched at Wellington's Museum Hotel on Tuesday night. The Hotel's owner, Chris Parkin, who was recently appointed to the board of Te Papa, gave a friendly speech in which he labelled long-standing Mayor Kerry Prendergast a "senior citizen". John Key, who said he "can't sing, can't act and can't dance", was looking forward to his bump and grind with Buffy and Bimbo at The Big Gay Out today. Photos: Mark Coote.

Helen Kedgley and her husband Chris Laidlaw.

National MP Hekia Parata and Lotteries Commission Chairwoman Judy Kirk.

He's toast!

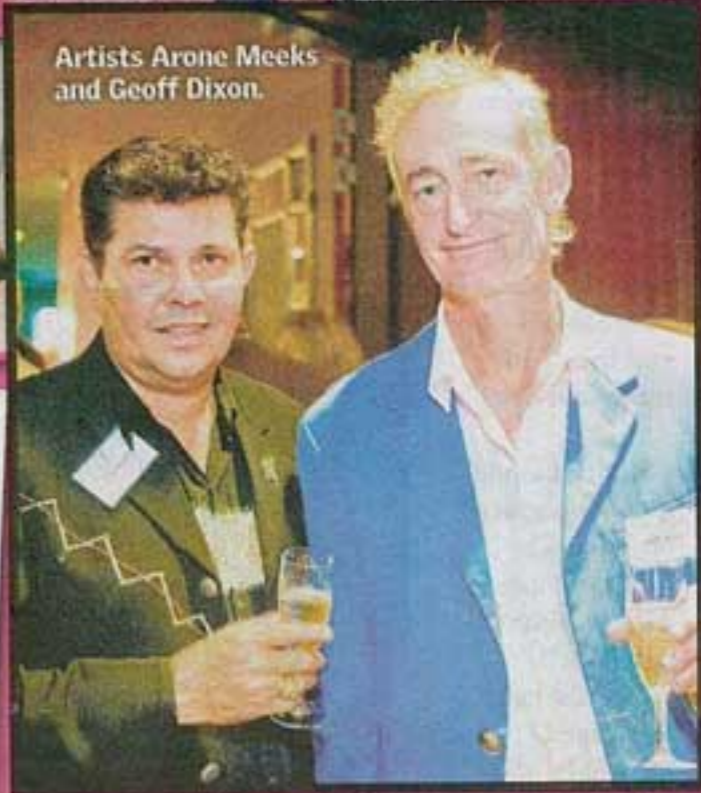

Julie Nevett, Rachel Plimmer and Deirdre Tarrant.

Mayor Kerry Prendergast, Corinne Blumsky and Mike Cole.

Artists Arone Meeks and Geoff Dixon.

Neil Plimmer and Alick Shaw.

Chris Parkin with Prime Minister John Key.

